SPECIFICALLY FEES!

Understanding the fee structure can be confusing, but these are the basics you should know.

WHAT WILL YOU PAY?

Tuition fees, covering course costs like staff, equipment, and libraries, are required for both international and domestic students.

UNIVERSITY:

University fees vary by study area. Some courses offer domestic students a Commonwealth Supported Place (CSP) with government subsidies.

TAFE:

At TAFE, tuition fees vary, and there are free courses! The best way to calculate TAFE fees is to visit their website and use their handy fee calculator.

HOW WILL YOU PAY?

You can pay in two ways - upfront or deferred loan.

UPFRONT:

You personally cover the cost of the fees, usually every semester. This is for international students, or those wanting to pay upfront.

DEFERRED:

Deferred payments are government-supported loans repaid when you reach a certain income. Eligibility depends on your course & residency.
